I am a princess.

I lead others and keep them safe.

A princess is the daughter of a royal family. Princess Leia's mother was a wise and brave queen named Padmé Amidala. Her father, Anakin Skywalker, was a powerful Jedi knight—a guardian of peace.

But Leia only ever knew her adoptive parents, Senator Bail Organa and his wife, Breha.

Like her parents, Leia has an adventurous spirit and a strong desire for justice.

A princess will do anything to protect her people. When the galaxy was in the grips of the evil Empire, Princess Leia joined the rebellion to fight for what's right.

Leia delivered the Death Star plans to the rebels—and helped destroy the Empire's gigantic battle station!

A princess must stand up to her enemies . . .

no matter how BIG and MEAN they are!

A princess must be ready to take charge in any situation . . .

... and race into action!

A princess is an ambassador of peace and goodwill. She makes new friends—and allies—wherever she goes!

Sometimes a princess may find herself in a scary place . . .

... or a tight spot. A princess must always be brave.

Sometimes a princess needs to be SNEAKY to outsmart her foes. When rebel hero Han Solo was captured and frozen in carbonite, Leia disguised herself as a bounty hunter to rescue him.

From the moment she is born, a princess devotes herself to the well-being of others.

A princess must always be a hero.

Are you ready to be a hero?
